

Dedication Ceremony

Please join us in welcoming to the Law Grounds an “echo” from the Law School’s past and a part of its current legacy.

A permanent exhibit is being installed at the eastern end of Hunton & Williams Hall which will feature reproductions of the historic, law-related murals from Clark Hall, the previous home of the School. The exhibit will include newly acquired, original works by the murals’ famous artist, Allyn Cox, which were drawn in preparation for the murals, including his detailed concept piece. Framed photographs of all of the former homes of the Law School are also featured. The exhibit was proposed and sponsored by John D. Fowler ’55.

The dedication ceremony and a toast to the art works will take place at the exhibit location at 11:50 a.m., on Saturday, May 3rd, following the Alumni Association meeting and retirement ceremony.
