GLENN D. PETERS
LAW SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIPS

Glenn D. Peters was born in 1885 in rural Indiana, the son of a practicing attorney. Glenn came to Hammond in his adult years and practiced law more than 50 years until his final illness and death in March of 1964. He received his legal education at the University of Chicago and was admitted to the Indiana Bar in 1907. He began practicing law in an era prior to personal computers; in fact even before typewriters were in common usage. Most pleadings back then were written by hand. Mr. Peters did much trial work for the Chesapeake & Ohio Rail Road, United States Steel Corporation and the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern Railway Company.

He was active in the affairs of the Indiana State Bar Association and from 1950 to 1955 he served on the State Board of Law Examiners by appointment of the Supreme Court of Indiana.

In addition to his considerable legal skills, Glenn was also known for his love of fishing, duck hunting, and the outdoors in general. He was also an avid conversationalist and story teller.

He and his wife Grace were married for over 50 years. She passed away shortly before he did. Since they had no children, he left his entire estate in trust for the purpose of funding law school scholarships for deserving students who are residents of the Northern District of Indiana of the United States District Court.

Glenn D. Peters Scholarships are awarded on merit (not need) through a selection process that involves First Midwest Bank’s Trust Division and Committee members.
