

Initiated in 1993, the 100% Participation Program challenges and recognizes firms and companies (with at least five Virginia graduates) that achieve 100% participation in annual giving. Because many firms and companies are in multiple cities, offices with five or more graduates are recognized in the program.

Those interested in achieving 100% participation should contact Helen Snyder '87, Chief Operating Officer, at (877) 307-0158, or at helensnyder@virginia.edu.

Why?

Young alumni continue to set new participation standards in annual giving. Ninety-five percent of the Class of 2006 made a gift to the 2006-2007 Annual Giving Campaign, surpassing its pledge rate at graduation of 92%.

Why give to Virginia Law?

“Outside the traditional reasons such as attracting top-flight professors, keeping tuition competitive, and maintaining a great building for the study of legal education, I believe there is a more important reason to give to Virginia Law—to send a message.

“When lawyers, law schools, and law students, both current and prospective, see that Virginia Law alumni give at a significantly higher rate than any other law school alumni in the country, it sends an unambiguous message that people leave the Law School with the fondest of memories, in addition to a legal education that yields success.”

—Chris Kavanaugh '06, Class Manager
