THE CAREER SERVICES PROGRAM AT THE

University of Virginia School of Law is one of the most successful among national law schools and provides students with a wide range of job opportunities across the nation and abroad. Virginia enjoys a reputation for producing lawyers who not only master the intellectual challenges of legal practice, but who also contribute broadly to the institutions they join through their strong leadership and interpersonal skills. As a result, private- and public-sector employers heavily recruit Virginia students each year. Graduates typically begin their careers with prestigious employers, including large and small law firms, government agencies and public interest groups. The geographic diversity of jobs obtained by Virginia Law graduates is unparalleled.

Top Job Locations, Classes of 2007-09

The Classes of 2007-09 saw at least five graduates accept jobs in each of 37 cities. Top locations include:

Washington, D.C.	253	Richmond, Va.	28
New York	235	Dallas	25
California	77	Houston	24
Atlanta	49	Philadelphia	24
Chicago	37	Charlotte, N.C.	18
Boston	36

Campus Recruiting, Fall 2008

- More than 820 employers
- 8,075 on-campus interviews of second-year students
- More than 21 interviews each (second-year students)
- More than 90% of those seeking private-sector employment received an offer through on-campus recruiting

KEVIN DONOVAN, a former litigation partner at Morgan, Lewis & Bockius in Philadelphia, leads the Law School's Office of Career Services.

YARED GETACHEW '98 directs the Mortimer Caplin Public Service Center and advises students seeking public interest positions.

GENEVIEVE ESSIG

'09, a Tampa, Fla., native and Yale graduate, will work for the environmental law group of Jenner & Block in Chicago.
