THE ART AND SCIENCE OF MASTERING THE JURY TRIAL
IRVIN V. CANTOR ’70

WELL BEFORE states, literary or legal systems, there was commerce and trade. Hawk examines commerce and its participants and the relationships through the lens of nine preindustrial societies, providing historical perspective to contemporary debates about the relationship between commerce and law. Public ordering versus privately created systems of law, the role of law, and the relative merits of courts versus merchant networks to resolve disputes.

THE PRESIDENCY IN THE GILDED AGE: THE NOMINATING CONVENTIONS OF 1876-1890
STAN HAYES ’73
This book analyzes the pageantry, drama, speeches, strategies, platforms, deal-making, and often surprising outcomes of the presidential nominating conventions of the Gilded Age, debunking many widely held beliefs about politics in a much-maligned era.
